Verses:

1 Corinthians 13:3-8a & 11-13

“If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.”

& 11-13 “When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.”

In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria--- a blessing in the midst of the land, whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying "Blessed [is] Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance." (Isaiah 19:23-25)
